"My husband and I are new to Kansas City and I have been really struggling to find a place for myself. I almost cried during the meeting today because I finally feel like I have somewhere I belong."—Stacy Leonard, Kansas City, Missouri

"I really love that fact that I found a true home and family."—Dwight Solis, Kansas City, Missouri

"I love meeting open minded, thinking people."—Sharyl Godlewski, Overland Park, Kansas

"I love the feeling of supportive community and the fantastic personalities I get to experience. Also, there are the hugs."—Ami Varney, Kansas City, Missouri

"Even if he doesn't want to tag along, it's so gratifying to finally be able to show my teenager that I'm not the only non-believer in all of KC."—Linda Andersen, Kansas City, Missouri

"I was initially skeptical of Oasis. But luckily, my curiosity overcame my cynicism. It has been amazing getting to feel like I'm a part of something that really is a force for good. Cynicism isn't a trait I want to share with my children, and I now know that skepticism and cynicism don't have to go hand in hand. Oasis has given my boys a community in which they can draw ideas, inspiration, and life experience from in a way I couldn't have provided them without."—Josh Laws, Kansas City, Kansas

"I love the chance to connect with my old friends and make new ones in a weekly basis!"—Senta Hershberger, Overland Park, Kansas

"I went to a Nazarene church for years, years ago. I never felt so genuinely accepted there as I do at Oasis (from day one!). And I don't feel Oasis would ever abandon me the way the church did when they judged my life decisions."—Sarah Israel, East Lynne, Missouri
